

C-Change

Music Workshop

Did you know that there are new resources of original NZ music?

‘Home for Christmas’

Children’s storybook and CD

Ideal Christmas/End of year production

C-Change is... Clare McCormack, and Caroline Zeeman

Clare and Caro are experienced music educators, teaching Orff Schulwerk, ukulele, choirs, piano, flute, recorder and marimba. They run workshops for teachers and the community in NZ and Australia. Their song ‘Colours of Aotearoa’ was a finalist in the APRA Ukulele Festival song writing competition 2008. Their song ‘Value Yourself’ is on the latest KiwiKids 17 CD.

For more information visit the website www.c-change.co.nz
or email, clare@c-change.co.nz

Auckland Workshop

Thursday 22 September, 2011

‘Home for Christmas’ Workshop 7.30pm-9pm

Venue: Lewis Eady (upstairs room)

75 Great South Road

Remuera

Details:

- A musical story about a little lost sheep who finds her way back home just in time for Christmas.
- Who helps her on the way? Kevin the Kakapo, Trish the Tuatara, Kasper the Kune Kune, Kiri the Katipo.....”they took Barbara home”
- Use of story, percussion instruments, melodic instruments, song and more.

To enrol:

1. Register online – www.c-change.co.nz
2. Fill in the form below and post including payment to;

C-Change Clare McCormack
PO Box 35 431 Browns Bay, North Shore
0753 Auckland

Workshop Centre: Auckland 22 September 2011

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Mobile: _____

Email: _____

Sign up to the C-Change Newsletter – Once a term, teaching ideas, new resources etc.

Prices:

‘Home for Christmas’ workshop –

- $35 for one teacher $60 for two teachers
 $15 for student teacher

Resources

- $25 – Order ‘Home for Christmas Book and CD’
 $50 – Order ‘Colours of Aotearoa’ CD + Book

Total $ _____ enclosed.